Rocanville Community Centre

We are cooking and socializing on Thursday, February 4th at 1:00 PM. We are not getting together this Thursday or on the 28th as there is little interest at this time. They were quite excited about the turn out on the 20th, and we must have made at least 30 or more meals. We expect that the 4th should be a success as well.

If you are a Senior in our community, please come on Feb 4th and bring along 3 empty containers to fill.

We will be delivering meals to those who can't make it to the Centre. Let us know if you can't come down and we'll try to get you a meal.

The Centre will be open every Thursday afternoon at 1:00 PM for cards, board games, pool, shuffleboard and all crafts. All members and nonmembers of all ages are welcome. Come and join us for fun & fellowship.

For more information on membership please contact Mel Strong or Linda Bock or another board member. Thank you! Everyone Welcome Membership $10 and EVERYONE is welcome to become a member.

FOREVER IN MOTION

Exercise group is meeting again after taking a short break through the Christmas holidays. Now that winter has truly set in the group is once again serious about keeping active. Participants are grateful for the interest that people from the community have demonstrated by joining the morning exercise and walking sessions. In 2015 the exercise group collectively walked 500 miles. The next walking goal is the virtual distance to the spa in Moose Jaw. Everyone chuckles over the Saskatchewan adventures experienced in the virtual world over morning coffee. Prairie View Lodge folk will continue to enjoy their Forever in Motion activities through this winter and welcome others to join in for a half hour of gentle aerobic exercise each Tuesday and Thursday morning. at 9:30 AM Call Rec Office 306-645-2164

Pie a Teacher for Telemiracle 40

Rocanville School SRC has been selected to be a part of Telemiracle's anniversary celebration and will be heading to Regina to volunteer as toteboard workers on March 6th! This year marks Telemiracle's 40th anniversary on March 5th and 6th in Regina. Every year Kinsmen Telemiracle Foundation has the opportunity to improve the quality of life and the independence of hundreds of people.

Saskatchewan residents are able to access special needs equipment and medical assistance that wouldn't otherwise be attainable.

Our Plan!

Rocanville SRC along with Rocanville's Free the Children group have joined together and they are looking for your help in supporting this wonderful cause. We plan to raise money by hosting a Pie a Teacher for Telemiracle fundraiser. Beginning now and running until Feb 25th students (and community members) can donate money to the teacher of their choice to see them get PIED in the face! Collection jars will be in the library. Rocanville School will host a day of pie-ing on Feb 29 during Period 1 (open to community members as well).

To be the one who gets to throw the pies you simply purchase a Telemiracle Helping Hand from the office for $2.

Every Helping Hand that you purchase gets your name entered into the draw to throw a pie at a teacher!

Lastly, on February 29th there will be cookies offered during snack time for students in grades K-6 and for sale in the PAA lab during break. Cookies will be sold for $1 per 2 cookies.

Watch for our students to be on television on March 6 from 2 pm- 5 pm!

Thanks for your support in this amazing cause!

Destination: Newfoundland

Wild and windswept, cultured and creative, Newfoundland is famous for making “come-from-aways” feel right at home.

Newfoundland mixes the very, very old - ancient rocks, fossils and prehistoric settlements - with a vibrant culture that celebrates storytelling, creativity and humour. St. John's, the capital of Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada's youngest province, is home to a dynamic mix of musicians, artists, writers, dancers and craftspeople. Its George Street also boasts the greatest number of pubs and bars per square foot on any North American street. Meanwhile, the smaller towns and villages dotted around the 111,390-square-kilometre “Rock” provide friendly bases for vacation experiences that are unique in Canada and the world.(1)

Snap a selfie with a whale

From May to September, 22 species of whales visit the coasts of Newfoundland. Whether you're on a boat tour, splashing through the water in a sea kayak or on a shoreline hike with a view, you may catch sight of a member of the world's largest population of humpbacks, as well as sperm, blue, orca and other whales. If you time it right, an iceberg may float by, providing a spectacular backdrop to a once-in-a-lifetime photo op.(2)

Enjoy theatre in a World Heritage Park

The Gros Morne Theatre Festival runs for 16 weeks through the summer in the community of Cow Head at the north end of Gros Morne National Park.(3) Stretching across 1,805 square kilometres, the park is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a destination in its own right with forests, fjords, cliffs, bogs, tablelands and complex geology that allowed geologists to prove the theory of plate tectonics.(4) If you're in Norris Point in May, check out the Trails, Tales and Tunes Festival, for an all-in-one combination of walks, workshops and entertainment.(5)

Visit a Viking longhouse

More than a thousand years ago, Norse explorers settled in L'Anse aux Meadows - now also a UNESCO World Heritage Site - and today you can tour the ruins and reconstructions of wood-framed peat-turf homes, workshops and a forge to learn about what life was like in this picturesque spot back in AD 1000. This remains the only known Viking site in North America, with a history of local (non-European) human activity dating back about 5,000 years.(6)

Train your binoculars on a bird in flight

Interested in seabirds? Newfoundland lays claim to the title “Seabird Capital of North America,” with 35 million of them, including gannets, puffins and storm petrels. Newfoundland is also a great place to spot birds of prey - hawks, falcons, ospreys, owls and more than 800 rare American bald eagles. Hop on a boat at Witless Bay Ecological Reserve or hike into the Cape St. Mary's Ecological Reserve for a close-up look.(7)

Get adventurous in the great outdoors

Raft on the rapids of the Exploits River, explore caves and canyons in the Humber Valley, dive to shipwrecks in Conception Bay, zipline over the fishing village of Petty Harbour or “flightsee” high about Terra Nova National Park. In the winter, go skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing and snowmobiling - or try your hand at dogsledding on Newfoundland's snowy west coast.(8) A new adventure is around every scenic curve in the road.

Taste local delicacies

Eat with an open mind - exploring Jiggs' dinner with figgy duff, cod tongues, touts, salt fish and brewis, among other Newfoundland treats. Savour the morning's catch of cod, halibut, salmon, trout, lobster, mussels, scallops or shrimp. Or tickle your taste buds with wild game such as moose, caribou, bear and rabbit. Choose the venue you prefer: a cozy booth in a fine-dining restaurant in St. John's, a picnic blanket in the shadow of a lighthouse or a sod hut for a Viking feast in L'Anse aux Meadows.(9)

Walk in the footsteps of John Cabot

Bonavista is named after the delighted exclamation reportedly made by Giovanni Caboto (known locally as John Cabot) when he landed there in 1497: “O buona vista!” With heritage buildings clustered on narrow lanes, scenic rocky shores with pebbled beaches, and a replica of Cabot's ship in the harbor, Bonavista is still today “a happy sight.” Nearby, Dungeon is just one of Newfoundland's many charmingly named provincial parks - others include Blow Me Down and Deadman's Bay.(10)

Enjoy Newfoundland's unique language

Many languages have been spoken in Newfoundland over the centuries - from the aboriginal Algonquian and Eskimo-Aleut language families to the Norse, Basque, Spanish, Portuguese, German, French, Irish Gaelic and Scots Gaelic of European visitors and settlers. Traces can be found in the island's unusual place names and unique language.(11) For a more extensive primer on local dialects, check out the Dictionary of Newfoundland English Online at www.heritage.nf.ca/dictionary.
